NAZI WAR CRIMES DISCLOSURE ACT

Declassified and Approved for Release by the Central Intelligence Agency
Date: 2003 2005

EXEMPTIONS Section 3(b)
(2)(A) Privacy
(2)(B) Methods/Sources
(2)(B) Foreign Relations (7)

6. During the war the Germans raised 30,000 strong out of the Kosovers and had they had time to give them the necessary training and had the Allies not supported the lugoslav and the Albanian Communist partisans who sandwiched the Kosovers, the fate of albanian communist partisans who sandwiched the Kosovers, the fate of albanian clear, would have been different from what it is today. (Note: It apologizes for tranting such matters which are out of his field, however, feels his duty to bring to the attention of the organization which in turn it is hoped will pass it to authorities concerned.)

7. DEVA, and in a lesser degree KRIMZIU are potential elements to recruit Eosovars who will fight only as a Kosovar unit. The last war showed us cluarly that big trump cards one can possess if farzightedness is shown in time to handle those areas.

- 8. Our organization can easily get the credit of having initiated and planned the move (even though it appears to be of a military nature) before the British "experts," as usual, take the lack in such matters, especially when it concerns Kosova-albania where they are not welcomed at all.
- 9. Should Headquarters deem it usoful to give consideration to the above statements, it is hoped that the services of the Athens Station will be made use of, both for advice and control purposes.
- 10. DEVA was traveling on an Italian passport which was valid for one trip to Ictanbul.
